QUEER RULE IN DIXIE

The Southern Intercollegiate As-The Southern Intercollegiate Association, which controls college athletics in Dixie, has made a queer rule. It permits students to play ball for money without damaging their amateur standing—so long as they don't play with teams in organized baseball. Just what is the logic of the ruling is not explained, but probably the mon who plained, but probably the men who made it have a reason.

ington net. Gonzales scored the second tally after having the ball passed to him by Riley, Frazier and O'Brien. While the St. Elizabeth eleven leads the Baltimore Soccer League, it is interesting to note that the ocals put them down for the first gar of the season and it is to be expected that the Washingtons will give a good account of themselves when they meet the other crack footballers from the Monumental City later in the season.

Brooklyn Mauler and Southern Light weight Are Disappointments in Matinee Show.

By JOHN A. DUGAN.

A disappointment on "the happy New Year" greeted some 800 local fistic fans who journeyed to the Maryland Athletic and Social Club yesterday afternoon to witness the matinee show held in the arena in the Ardmore woods. "Tommy" Lowe, the Southern light-weight champion, and Andy Cortez, of Brooklyn, were carded in the main set-to over a fitteenround route. TO STRAIGHTEN OUT BALTIMORE FED CASE but when the battlers toed the mark for the second section, Lowe's old-time speed semed to leave him and Cortex fired right and left punches at him almost at wili. The rumors and reports that had drifted to this city before Corter's arrival were shown in the second and gave the first fans plenty of hopes of witnessing some real milling, but Lowe came back strong in the next session and these fond hopes went skyward.

Cortes appeared to be somewhat dazed, as his judge of distance until the eighth round was bad, and Lowe proceeded to pile up a comfortable lead. In the eighth Andy came out of his garner like a bolt of lightning and again handed out his famous alams, but by a clever bit of holding and covering Tommy managed to cover up and stall through this session.

Lowe did not show any, speed of form until the twelfth, when he sailed into Cortex and gave him a good lacting. In the next two sessions things were about even, with first one battler and then the other forcing the milling, but in the final round the Brooklyn mauler did some real slugging and had the local light-weight on the run. ing. TO MEET CARPENTIER of a match with Georges Carpenher or-hind him and immediately begin arrange-ments to meet some other boxer.

New York, Jan. 1.-Les Darry, the Australian champion, will put thoughts of a match with Georges Carpentier be-

Darcy made this statement to the United Press today when the story from Paris stating it would take four months for Carpentier to get into condition was read to him. He didn't name the boxer Carpentier to be in good condition.

"Of course," said the promoter, "If Carpentier is in the condition the United Press correspondent says he is we will have to go ahead with another match."

Darcy has been offered many vaudeville engagements and he hinted that he might accept a short one. Who he will fight, he said, would be announced later.
